The promised dry trial at Eaton was not spoiled by the soft rain that arrived around lunch time. Section 8, usually the bike swallowing bog, took only a few marks this time. Section 4's tight turns took most of the marks, followed by the stream filling a few pairs of boots on section 7. Only 4 clean rounds but some low scores show there was enough to test most of us. We welcomed a couple of new faces and the return of Mick Ballard after many years absence. The return of team Constable, with clipboards in hand, was also a welcome sight. With thanks to all our observers. We hope you had a good day as well as the riders.

Observer's Raffle: Won by Margaret Constable on section 2
