Another cracking trial at Eaton. Pete and Roger laid out some really interesting sections and managed to take points of everybody except Mick Ash. You can see from the section totals above where most of the points went. "The Bog" being the greatest challenge. I narrowly avoided a soaking by falling off away from the exit mire. We were short of observers again and we're grateful that riders who have finished or retired step in to help out - it just helps the day along. If we want our regular observers to keep coming it would be nice if they're not kept standing waiting for riders to turn up who have retired without telling them - it's the polite thing to do!

Observer's Raffle: Won by Sarah on section 3 - the wine might help dull the back pain.
