Our first trial of the winter series was in lovely sunshine with dragonflies buzzing around the ponds and stink wheel smoke scenting the air. 27 riders entered but only 23 finished – my reason being machine problems, others had less convincing excuses. The sections were tight in places but obviously not too tight as two cleans and several low scores, especially in the tele-rigid class, show it was all perfectly doable to those with the acquired skills. A most enjoyable day out in the woods.
