Section totals:					41	55	411	58	41	12	49	28

A combination of record February rainfall and the previous weekend's event by another club made the north end of the venue challenging, to say the least. I was amazed to see only one mark each dropped for the day by Stuart and Ben Measures. Well done chaps! A total of 411 points lost on section 3 kept John's pen busy but a win on the observers raffle was due reward. Thanks to our observers once again.

BBQ Trial: Following suggestions at previous BBQ events the Taverners have arranged for overnight camping to be available on the Saturday night (13th June) of our annual event. The event will now enable riding on Sat & Sun with the normal BBQ held on the Sat evening. We may stretch to bacon sarnies on the Sun morning.

Basic toilet facilities only will be provided. Self sufficiency in all other matters is to be expected.

We would require anyone wishing to camp on the Saturday to pre book with Pete Hyde-Monk or myself.

Saturday camping bookings will be accepted from regular riders, observers and immediate family only.

Access times will need to be restricted, for obvious reasons.

Observer's Raffle: Won by John on section 3
