What a lovely day it turned out to be. Frost on the grass to start, then autumn sun for the rest of the day.
 The rain in previous days kept the dust at bay but didn't affect the grip resulting in plenty of low scores.
 If a tree in section 2 hadn't jumped in front of me I'd have achieved my first ever clean event!
 As a bonus; no one went home in an ambulance!
 Thanks, as ever, to our observers it was a bit chilly for some in the shady spots.

We are recruiting for a new trials secretary to take over from me after 20+ years in post. If anyone would like to discuss taking on the role then please get in touch.

Observer's Raffle: Won by Graham on section 5
