The last minute change of venue saved us from having to cancel Sunday's event which would have meant missing out on a pleasant day at Riley's - so thanks to Mr Riley and to Pete H-M for sorting it out.

I can see that sections 3 and 4 were considerably more challenging than section 7 where I was observing. Although a few riders didn't find me until after the lunch break. The big climb on section 8 took no marks. I hope our new faces enjoyed their day with the Taverners.

Thanks to our observers, which included the slightly damaged Ian Coates, and to those retiring riders who picked up boards to ease the progress of the event.

Our next event is at Lount on 14th April- behind the Welly Deli again, down the long drive where we must all park through the gates - ealy arrivals please park well into the woods to make room for the rest.

Observer's Raffle: Won by Yours Truly on section 7
