Well, that was a challenging day for everyone. Steve Cordon finishing on 9 is quite an achievement!
Looking at the section totals we can see 5 and 6 took most points. By comparison, 3 and 4 won't need their pencils sharpening. Andy Smith extends his thanks to those that helped him up in various locations.
A couple of machine failures caused retirements while I decided I'd pushed my luck far enough after 5 laps.
Considering the weather over the previous week, Pete and his team did a good job making it work.

Nigel McDonnell failed the final test of the day and had to be towed out of his chosen parking spot. Not before splattering yours truly in mud while digging himself in deeper.
As ever, thank you to our observers for sticking with us, and for those who picked up a board.
