What a shocker for what has become our last trial of the season! Only 10 riders finished the trial from 33 starters, even with the reduction in laps from 8 to 6. This has to be the highest attrition rate of any trial we've run. A drizzly day made the conditions extremely challenging with little grip either in or between the sections. So hats off to the finishers, especially Mick Ash, with an amazing 2 marks loss for the day! Thanks to all riders for turning out and giving it a go!

Special thanks, as ever, to our observers and officials who keep us trialling throughout the season. We couldn't do it without you.

The Taverners have decided to cancel the last trial at Lount and will be taking decisions on other events as the current situation unfolds. Please check on www.thetaverners.com and tavernerstrials.org.uk for up to date information.
